

Saint Nicholas of Myra - The Walk on the Three Mondays

FIRST MONDAY

Saint Nicholas, by the precious Blood of my Lord Jesus Christ which He spilled in the street of Bitterness, by the crown of thorns they placed on His Most Holy Head, by the slap they gave Him on His Most Sacred Rostrum, by the slashes they inflicted on his Most Holy Side; O divine love! For the scourging they inflicted upon His most holy back, for the pain that His Most Holy Mother felt on the street of Bitterness, when she saw Him fall carrying the Cross for our sins; for all that He felt in his most Holy Passion and for the most abundant Blood that He spilled; for all this I plead to you, Saint Nicholas, that you intercede for the needs and afflictions that surround me, and you give me a favorable response to all my afflictions.

Make now your petition and then say three times: "Saint Nicholas, hear me". Then conclude with the final Praise and Prayer

SECOND MONDAY

Pray the same prayer you prayed on the First Monday. Then make your petition and say three times: "Saint Nicholas, guide me". Then conclude with the final Praise and Prayer

THIRD MONDAY

Pray the same prayer you prayed on the First Monday. Then make your petition and say three times: "Saint Nicholas, come for my petition;". Then conclude with the final Praise and Prayer

PRAISE

Full of sweet hope today I come to you, my saint,
as I trust in your goodness
in finding my happiness.

I know well that my confidence
will not be let down,
and that I will see
my fervent petition answered,
as you will calm the affliction
of this anguished soul.

FINAL PRAYER

Most glorious Saint Nicholas, humble and virtuous Archbishop of Myra, remember that it has not been heard said that your favors do not reach those who approach you in their tribulations.

I trust in you, I wait for you and I ask you that you be my interpreter for God Our Lord, with the end of obtaining this grace that with my whole soul I ask you. Be my guide, be my safeguard and purify my soul. Amen.

"We implore you, Lord, supplicating, your mercy, and for the intercession of your Saint Nicholas, Bishop: guard us of all danger, so that we be shown the expedited path of salvation. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Amen"

Saint Nicholas

Nowadays, "Santa Claus" is employed to sell all types of things and almost nobody remembers his true history. It is time that Christians recover and take back our saint and we teach our children that Christmas is the celebration of the Birth of God made child. Let us remember then that Saint Nicholas was a Holy Bishop that was preoccupied for the poor, and especially the children, and became famous for his charity
